Hi I'm Ashley.

I'm an experienced systems admin and web developer. I believe my IT experience combined with my friendly demeanor and customer service-oriented attitude would make me an excellent addition to your company.

You don't have to limit me to just the IT field though. I would also be a great executive assistant, customer service, data entry, or any other job that a friendly and intelligent person can handle.

Here is a short list of technologies I am amazing with:

- Web servers
  - LAMP
  - Nginx
  - IIS
  - Tomcat
- Domain Controllers
  - Active Directory
  - OpenLDAP
  - DNS
  - DHCP
  - Microsoft Server 2008 to present
  - Linux alternatives
  - File/Folder security
- Email
  - Zimbra
  - Microsoft Exchange
  - Mailcow
  - Office 365
  - Gmail
- Security Appliance
  - Untangled
  - Sonicwall

- Database
  - MySQL
  - Microsoft SQL
  - Postgresql
- ERP
  - Dentrix
  - Eaglesoft
  - Dolphin Imaging
- Business Reporting
  - JasperSoft
- Software Development
  - PHP
  - MySQL
  - HTTP
  - CSS
  - Joomla
  - Wordpress
- Phone systems
  - FreePBX
  - VOIP
  - Android
  - iPhone
  - Device management

- Desktop OS
  - Windows 2000 to present
  - Linux Mint
  - Ubuntu
  - Etc
- Backup
  - BackupEXEC
  - Windows backup
  - AhsayOBM
  - Carbonite
  - A myriad of open source alternatives
- Office Suites
  - Word
  - Excel
  - Outlook
  - Open source alternatives

I have more than 18 years of experience and there isn't much I haven't worked with. The list above isn't exhaustive.

Here are a few websites I've built:

- handpoppedkettlecorn.com
- cdshackelfordlaw.com
- yuimmigration.com
- viveelsueno.bike
- vdktire.com

- prosalutem.com
- sherrylanedental.com
- myorderkiosk.com
- phoneinfo.wiki
- lnkdecks.com

- wallysconcrete.com
- pegasus.limo
- steveconwaymusic.com
- dallasjetski.net
- orangely.tech

My salary requirements are anywhere north of $50,000 annually, but more importantly I need healthcare benefits.
